

PHOENIX CONSERVANCY

GREAT PLAINS INTERNSHIP

The Phoenix Conservancy is seeking a dedicated and professional undergraduate student who is looking for experience in conservation and restoration in the Great Plains region. The focus of this project will be centered around the Black Hills National Forest (BHNF) in South Dakota and Wyoming. The individual chosen for this position will be working under the supervision of a wildlife biologist based out of the Great Plains who is partnering with the Phoenix Conservancy

Talk to us today

www.phoenixconservancy.org

manager@phoenixconservancy.org

ELIGIBILITY

- Candidate must be able to stay in the Great Plains for the entire duration of the set time frame.
- Must be working towards completing a scientific degree in ecology, environmental science, biology, or other related fields.
- Must be currently enrolled at a two-year or four-year college.
- Must have the physical ability to work long hours performing hands-on activities in the field.
- Experience in field work, data collection, plant/animal identification, and ArcGIS preferred.